FIRE-FLIES.

Fire-flies flitting out there in the grass,
How your lights are glowing as you pass!
All the little crickets chirp to you and call,
As they tune their fiddles for the fairie's ball.
Bull-frog's basses and the June-bug's drum
Make the kind of music that the fairies hum.
As they fleetly foot it in the fairy ring,
Then the fire-flies let their lanterns swing.
